Yes I believe you got that all correct except it is Pinion not Penny, and Pat Enochs, not Enoch. I am trying to run down Pat's title and affiliation. Steve Joseph is with Reserve Management Group, not the facility directly. Not sure of his title.

Pinion is with RK & Associates, Inc.

Hi Steve,

A follow-up question I had, when you get a moment. Can you please confirm the names of the folks who attended this morning from your end, including the lawyers? I didn't want to take unnecessary time asking for spellings, etc.

Here's what I had:

Mike Cooke, Greenberg Traurig
Ann Zwick (sp?), Freeborn Peters, law firm in Chicago
Patrick Christopher – Chief Operating Officer, Brooklyn Resource Recovery
Pat Enoch (sp?) – not sure if Pat is a consultant, or works directly for Brooklyn Resource Recovery
John Penny (sp?) – not sure what his official title is at Brooklyn Resource Recovery
Steve Joseph – not sure what his official title is at Brooklyn Resource Recovery

Thanks,
Amanda

Amanda –

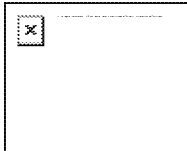

Thanks for arranging the meeting today. I thought it was a good exchange of views and hopefully brings the sides closer together in finding an approach to the emissions at the BRR facility. As requested by Shaun, attached is the report pertaining to the 2017 testing by Excel.
